

This I Believe

1. It is not only what we know, but also, what we believe that determines what we do.
2. The 4-H boys and girls are more important than the 4-H project.
3. 4-H is not trying to replace the home, the church, and the school – only supplement.
4. 4-H'ers should be their own best exhibit.
5. No 4-H award is worth sacrificing the reputation of the 4-H member or volunteer.
6. Competition is a natural human trait and should be recognized as such in 4-H Club work. It should be given no more emphasis than other fundamentals in 4-H.
7. Learning how to do the project is more important than the project itself.
8. Many things are caught rather than taught.
9. A blue ribbon 4-H member with a red ribbon pig is more desirable than a red ribbon member with a blue ribbon pig.
10. To “learn by doing” is a fundamental in any sound educational program and characteristic of the 4-H program.
11. Generally speaking, there is more than one good way of doing most things.
12. Every 4-H member needs to be noticed, to be important, to achieve, and to be praised.
13. Our job is to teach 4-H members how to think, not what to think.
