What Our Trade Show Folks Should Know

More than 400 Master Gardeners are expected to attend the 2012 Southern Region Master Gardener Conference.

Your avid Master Gardeners are gardening enthusiasts and horticulturalists who will want to know more about:

- water and soil management, season extenders, seed saving, and xeriscaping
- green architecture, green resources, rain barrels, and composting
- gardening fitness, mental health, and gardening rewards
- food production, high tunnels, greenhouses, edible landscapes, and farmers' markets
- community gardens, town landscapes, beautification projects, and volunteerism

On Wednesday and Thursday of the conference the Trade Show will have FREE admission to the public.

The trade show is located at 215 Franklin Street, Natchez, MS 39120 in the Community Center.

Exhibit space is limited to 30 inside booths, so don't delay in registering. See the showroom floor plan to choose potential space. With your booth reservation, your business will be listed in the program guide. Booths will be assigned upon paid registration.

To attend sessions, you must pay the conference registration. Seating in conference seminars is limited. All attendees will register and wear the prescribed badge while in attendance.
