

TIMBER: Grenada County's Number One Crop

Value of Agricultural Crops 2007

Source: USDA NASS Census of Agriculture State & County Profiles 2007

Timber Values over Time

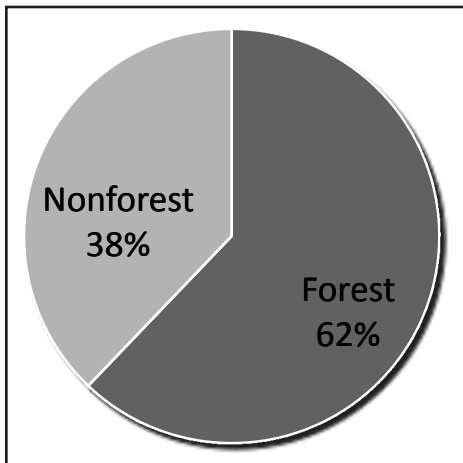

Benefits of Actively Managing Your Forest Land

- You earn more money from your property.
- Trees grow tax-deferred as they increase in value and yield.
- Active forest management enhances wildlife habitat.
- Managed forests support local forest markets, industry, and jobs.
- Sound forest management protects soil and water resources.

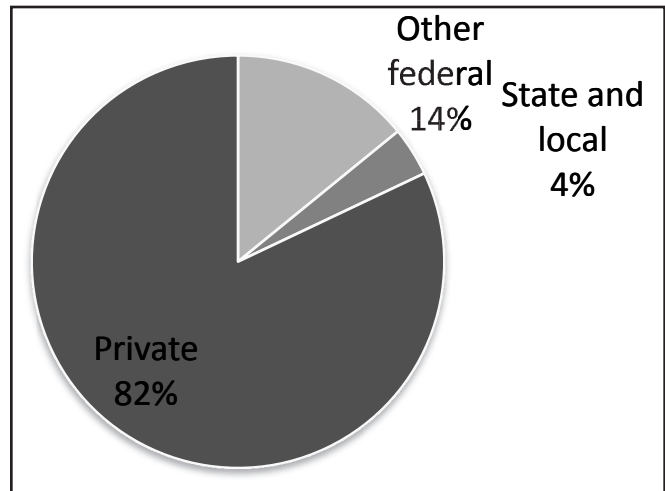

MISSISSIPPI STATE
UNIVERSITY
EXTENSION SERVICE

Grenada County Forestry Facts

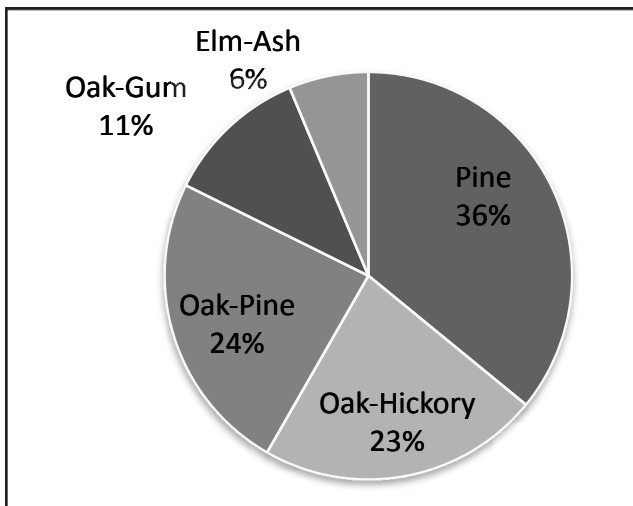

Total Area (261,870 acres)

Forest Ownership

Source: USDA Forest Service, Forest Inventory and Analysis Mapmaker 2006

Forest Types

How To Better Manage Your Forest Land

- Learn more about forestry by becoming involved with the GrenadaCounty Forestry Association.
- Have a written forest management plan for your property.
- Reforest all harvested or idle forest land.
- Be an active manager of your forest property.
- Use the advice and services of a registered, professional forester.

For more information, contact these agencies:

Mississippi State University Extension Service
 Grenada County Extension Office
 1240 Fairground Rd., Suite E
 Grenada, MS 38901
 Ph: 662-226-2061
 Email: grenada@ext.msstate.edu

Mississippi Forestry Commission
 50 East Pecan St., Suite A
 Grenada, MS 38901
 662-226-1973